Virtual. Functional Nutrition. Entirely Free

Welcome to Utopia WellCare - Functional Nutrition for Better Health

You have access to free virtual appointments with our Registered Dietitians, specialists in Functional Nutrition, a personalized, practical approach to improving your health. Best of all, appointments are 100% covered by your IBX health insurance, so there are no out-of-pocket costs.

Our dietitians go beyond generic nutrition advice. They take the time to understand your lifestyle, stress levels, daily routine, health history, and eating habits to create recommendations tailored to you. No guesswork, no fad diets, and no one-size-fits-all plans. Just personalized support designed around your goals and your life.

Whether you're looking to boost energy, manage your weight, improve digestive health, support hormone balance, reduce inflammation, or simply feel your best, we're here to help.

Complete your 6th nutrition appointment during the 2026 plan year and receive a free smart fitness ring!
